Foreword

We, the Senior Class of 1951, hope by the publication of this Oak, to enshrine forever in your memories the days we have spent together in the halls of Lafayette. Through the wise instruction of our teachers, helpful advice of our principal, and support of the underclassmen, these years have been rewardingly spent. In the years to come, the thoughts, ideals, principles, and remembrances embodied in this book will become increasingly treasured. May all the years of the future graduates of Lafayette be as happy as ours have been.

Dedication

To Miss Mildred Bringman, our teacher, adviser, friend, and inspiration, we, the Senior Class of 1951 proudly dedicate this edition of the Oak.

ADMINISTRATORS

Superintendent

Mr. George Blackwell has served with the utmost efficiency and integrity in the capacity of Superintendent of Schools for the past seven years. His friendly interest and co-operation have greatly contributed to the success of his career.

Board of Education

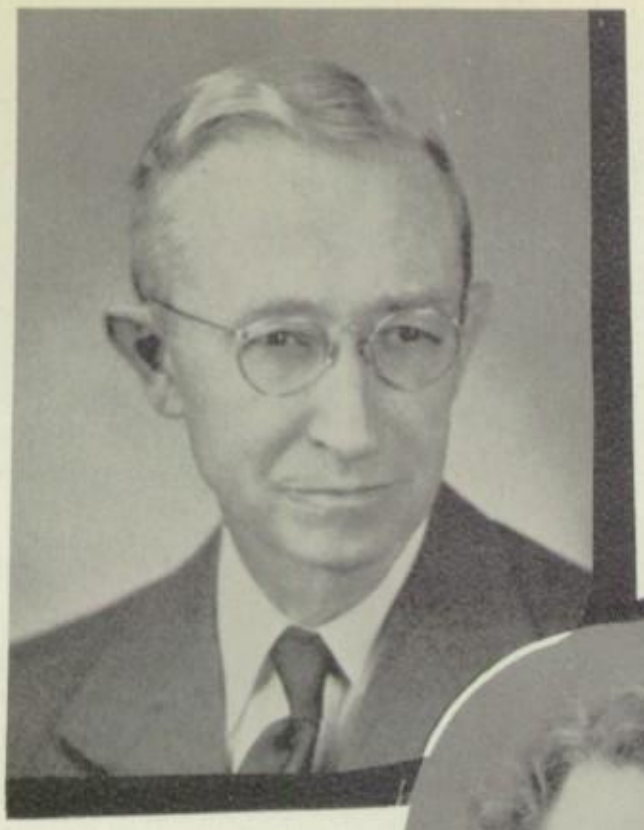
The teachers and students of Lafayette say thanks to you, the members of the School Board, for the time and patience you have given to the welfare of our school.



Mr. D. H. Murphy, our principal, is as much a part of Lafayette as green and gray or the Irish spirit. As the seniors go to their different fields of work, there will always linger memories of Lafayette and our beloved Mr. Murphy. His endless effort to see Lafayette rank the highest, his encouragement and advice have planted a seed deep in the hearts of every alumni.

Miss Georgee Hash, counselor, has given many hours of devoted service to the betterment of Lafayette High School and the enrichment of the lives of its students.

Mr. C. V. Howard, vice-principal of Lafayette High School, is respected by all as teacher and administrator. He excels in many fields and does well every task he undertakes.

Miss Anna Hague, adviser to girls, is greatly admired for her efficiency as teacher and friend. She is well fitted for her position and is always willing to help those who need her.

CLASSES

I believe Lafayette stands for high scholarship, the attainment of the culture in History, Languages, Mathematics, and Science.

Student Senate

BOB COURTNEY
Student Body President

"This organization, the Student Senate, has been formed in order to assure closer relations between the faculty and the student, to promote the general welfare of the school, to encourage sentiments of law and order, and to provide a forum for the discussion of questions of interest to the school."

Bob Courtney has proved to be one of the outstanding student body presidents in Lafayett's history, His energetic and humorous approach to his task and his abounding vitality have made him well-liked by the students and faculty. He has also shown his ability to handle a serious situation to deal effectively with the duties of his high office.

"OAK"

From many hours of diligent effort and hard work of the "Oak" staff and Miss Mildred Bringman, adviser, the make-up, copy, and dummy of the yearbook turned into a record of the happenings of 1950-1951.

Eugene Carter was appointed editor of the "Oak" and Doris Eyman was assistant-editor. Together these two combined their abilities as leaders and artists to produce a revolutionary "Oak".

Mr. John Yancey was the financial manager.

The editor-in-chief of the "Oak" this year was Eugene Carter. He was appointed for this position because of his artistic ability, dependability, and devotion to his duty.

He has proven himself worthy of being the editor by spending long, hard, hours of work, to produce this yearbook.

ETTA JANE MASON

For three semesters Etta Jane has capably filled the position of editor-in-chief. She has given generously of her ideas and has shown her willingness to accept responsibility in order to promote the success of the publication of the "Light". Her dedication to her work and her helpfulness will be long remembered by her fellow staff members.

The journalism class has completed one of the most successful years in its history. Its bi-monthly publication, the "Light" has been exceptionally well written in addition to the fact that such necessary items as financing, advertising, distributing, and publishing were very adequately handled. The executive position of editor-in-chief was competently filled the first semester by Etta Jane Mason, and the second semester by Nelda Hinton. The immeasurable patience, energy, character-building influence, ability, and service of the adviser, Miss Mildred Bringman, has contributed no end to the achievement of a productive year.

NELDA HINTON

During the last semester Nelda has proved to the members of her staff that their selection of her for editor was a wise one, and to the entire student body that she is prompt to respond where her time, talent, or resources are needed. She has faithfully fulfilled every task and obligation, far beyond the call of duty.

The Sesora Club was founded in 1919, and is the oldest club at Lafayette. The name was chosen from their flower emblem, the rose. "Rose" spelled backwards, adding a final "a" spells "Sesora". The colors, also symbolical, are pink and white.

The aims of this club are to expand the talents of each member and to encourage interest in the fine arts throughout the school.

The Sesoras carry on many activities. They have picnics, parties, and programs.

The Sesoras are proud of their sponsor, Miss Emma Lee Ficklin, who also is talented. She has been very helpful in creating a spirit of cooperation and cultivating their talents.

Miss Patty Leddy, a very popular senior, was elected to serve both terms as president of Sesoras.

The Orphe-Delphians were organized in 1923, by eight boys who felt the need of a club for the purpose of promoting interests in art, music, and dramatics. It is the oldest boy's organization at Lafayette. The main events of the year are the Alumni Banquet, Christmas Party, preceded by caroling, Play, Farewell Banquet for the graduating members, and the picnic at Sugar Lake after School is out in the spring. It is held at the cabin of Mr. and Mrs. E.W. Riddle, whose sons are alumni.

Under the leadership of Miss Winifred Gallagher the Orphe-Delphians uphold the high standard of Lafayette.

LAFAYETTE ENJOYS SUCCESSFUL "50" CAMPAIGN UNDER NEW MENTOR, DEAN GEORGE

Lafayette High School was represent-on on the gridiron this year by one of the most successful squads to wear the green and grey in several seasons.

Under the guidance of our new head football coach, Dean George, our Irish gridsters waded through a tough eight game schedule, being undefeated in six and losing only two. They also tied for third place in the annual Jamboree, which was won by Central.

Sparked by the terrific passing of tail-back, Vic Eaton, the outstanding pass receiving of end, Tom Kelly, the sen-sational breakaway running of wingback, Tom Sloan, the power slants of fullback, Don Silcott, and the bruising line play of such outstanding sophomores as tackle, Jerry Strong, and guards, Carol Townsend and Bill Crenshaw, our Shamrocks startled the opposition with a tricky "Tulsa" single wing offence which couldn't be stopped.

TWENTY-FIVE WIN LETTERS

Coach George awarded twenty-five varsity letters to Lafayette gridsters this season. Of these, only six are Seniors, which leaves nineteen returning letter-men for next year's squad.

SENIORS RECEIVE CO-CAPTAINCY

By the unanimous vote of the team members, an honorary co-captaincy was awarded to the six senior lettermen, at the close of the season.

Miss Shamrock

SHIRLEY NICHOLS, Miss Shamrock

Miss Shirley Nichols, a prominent senior, was installed as Miss Shamrock of 1950, on Noyes Field, the night of October 19.

The Royal Party was made up of two attendants, the Maid of Honor and Miss Shamrock. Members of the football squad escorted the attendants and Miss Shamrock. The Student Body President escorted the Maid of Honor.

Leading the grand procession was Lafayette's Band, followed by the R. O. T. C. color guard. Then came the cheerleaders and the Colleens dressed in the traditional green and gray. The attendants, Misses Shirley White and Doris James were escorted down the field by Tom Sloan and John Kretzschmar, respectively. Miss Velda Walker was escorted by Student Body President, Bob Courtney. Next came Shirley Nichols escorted by the Captain of the team, Vic Eaton.

Bob Courtney introduced the attendants, the Maid of Honor, and Miss Shamrock. Shirley gave a speech thanking everyone for the honor of being the 1950 Miss Shamrock.

Basketball Queen

CAROL BONHAM Basketball Queen

This evening of December 20, Carol Bonham was crowned as the 1950-51 queen for the Shamrock's basketball season. Miss Pat Leddy was Maid of Honor.

Carol was escorted to her throne by Tom Sloan, captain of the team. She wore a white gown of net and satin trimmed in silver beads. The squad presented Carol with a gold basketball and bracelet. Maid of Honor, Pat Leddy, was escorted by Bob Courtney, student body president. She wore a green formal trimmed with sequins.

The four attendants were attired in pastel gowns and were escorted by members of the basketball squad. They were: Marquitta Pawling, with John Kretzschmar; Dixie Banks with Vic Eaton; Bonnie Barth with Tom Brady; and Claudette Anderson with Carl Hoeft.

A dance was held in the R.O.T.C. room in honor of the royal party after the game.
